

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Peace Partnerships and Crisis Management Directorate

(MD-PSD.PCM)

Policy Officer (Evaluation expert)

Integrated Approach for Peace and Security Division, PCM.1

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job No 440174

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

Within PCM ('Peace, Partnerships & Crisis Management Directorate'), the 'Integrated Approach for Peace & Security' Division (PCM.1) is a Division of some 20 staff. It is responsible for the effective coordination of the EU response throughout the conflict cycle by working with relevant geographic and thematic services, incl. outside the EEAS, in developing a shared EU strategy and integrated approach in dealing with crises. The division also has the lead in implementing the EU policy on Training for CSDP and is the service of contact with the European Security and Defence College.

PCM.1 is structured along three sectors:

- Sector 1 on Methodology provides methodological tools and practical support to EU actors in key areas such as SSR (Security Sector Reform), DDR (Disarmament, demobilisation and reintegration of ex-combatants), stabilisation, human security / human rights, climate and security, as well as Youth Peace and Security and develops the necessary policy concepts.
- Sector 2 on the Operationalisation of the Integrated Approach contributes to the political framework for the Integrated Approach to crisis and conflict, coordinates the EEAS strategic guidance on financial crisis response instruments (i.e. Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument - NDICI), contributes to the Humanitarian, Development and Peace nexus and leads on the stabilisation concept.
- Sector 3 on Evaluation and Knowledge Management stimulates a culture of continuous learning and development in the area of Peace, Security and Defence, by conducting and supporting impact evaluations, lessons processes, after action reviews and providing methodological guidance. It is working on impact evaluation of Civilian CSDP missions, an online platform EU Knowledge4Peace (EUK4Peace) and coordinates the implementation of the CSDP training policy.

The Secretariat of the Partnership for Security and Stability in the Sahel (P3S) is also administratively attached to PCM1. The P3S is an initiative of the international Coalition for the Sahel, led by the EU, which aims to promote coherence and synergy in security and stabilization efforts in the region.

We propose:

The position of Evaluation expert

The successful candidate will join the above-mentioned sector 3 in the PCM.1 Division, and will contribute therefore to the implementation of an integrated ('whole-of-EU') approach to conflict prevention, crisis management and stabilisation, through i.a. policy and concept development, analysis and context-specific technical advice as well as knowledge management, including evaluation of impact. The position includes working closely with EEAS geographical and relevant horizontal teams, EU Delegations, EUSR's, Special Envoys, CSDP structures, Commission services and international partners, including civil society.

The main focus of this position will be to contribute to the independent evaluation of the impact of civilian CSDP missions and thus contribute to the planning processes, to identifying lessons and to providing Member States and EEAS with informed decision-making.

Functions and Duties:

- Support the Head of Sector in the development of evaluation methods and tools and in the conduct of independent evaluations of civilian CSDP missions, in close dialogue with other relevant EEAS and Commission directorates and stakeholders. This includes contributions to developing and revising, whenever necessary, the EEAS' Evaluation Concept and Methodology;
- Contribute to developing evaluation methods and tools and conducting independent evaluations of civilian CSDP missions, which includes the drafting Terms of reference for specific evaluations, desk-studies and field visits, the drafting of evaluation reports, contributions to the creation of feedback loops as part of the overall work on knowledge management, and any other tasks related to the evaluation of impact of CSDP missions;
- Contribute to the further development and application of conceptual thinking on the theory of change for civilian crisis management missions, including contributing to the drafting of SOPs;
- Establish and maintain regular contacts and exchanges with other EU services, including, civilian CSDP missions, Delegations, as well as with Member States, third countries, international organisations, international and national NGOs, research institutions and the academic community at large as relevant;
- Follow-up and contribute to external relations policy proposals, including through the inter-institutional decision-making process;
- Draft reports, briefings, policy, methodological, programming and other documents as appropriate;
- Support the Head of Division in any other tasks as required.

We are looking for:

We are looking for an energetic, proactive and motivated evaluation expert who will be working in a friendly and dynamic environment, and who wants to contribute to implementing and advancing the EU's Integrated Approach to external crises and conflicts, and to further strengthen the way we bring together our expertise and instruments, and work with Member States, to deliver greater impact in fragile and conflict-affected areas.

The expert for this post is expected to have previous technical expertise in the field of evaluation of security sector support and/or a good understanding of the EU crisis management toolbox (including actors and their different interests/positions and capacities). The expert is required to conduct several field studies to CSDP mission host countries, including in high/critical risk areas. A good overview/understanding of the EU system and knowledge of most recent EU policy concepts in the area of crisis management would be desirable. Experience and knowledge of civilian CSDP missions would be considered an asset.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, including from law enforcement agencies, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation, from other sources;
- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union¹ or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level²;
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his/her duties (see below);
