

EEAS Vacancy Notice

CO-FINANCED

Seconded National Expert/Counterterrorism to Central Asia

Delegation of the European Union to Uzbekistan

AD level post

Job No 314207

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The position of Seconded National Expert covering Security/Counterterrorism issues at the EU Delegation to Uzbekistan as a "co-financed" secondment, i.e. salary, insurances, accommodation and other costs are to be paid by the EU MS as appropriate and specific allowances to be paid by the EEAS.

Overall purpose: assist EU Delegations in Central Asia to monitor security developments, help establish and maintain EU relations with local counterparts on counterterrorism and preventing/countering violent extremism (P/CVE) and financing of terrorism (CTF), and contribute to analysis and reporting in the fields of security, counterterrorism, rule of Law, security sector reform, under the direct supervision of the Head of Delegation. S/he will be based in Tashkent and will be required to travel in the country and in the region. The Expert will be a member of the EU CT/Security Experts Network and, as such, will be accountable to EEAS HQ for related tasks and assignments.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a highly motivated colleague (SNE) to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE) covering counterterrorism/security issues to the EU Delegation to Uzbekistan.

The expert will assist / contribute:

- To follow the security situation and related developments in the Central Asia region and in the country and support the EEAS HQs, as well as the EU Delegation (working closely with other Delegations in the region) with advice on matters related to security, with a focus on counterterrorism, radicalisation, and preventing/countering violent extremism, as well as transnational and organised crime;
- To analyse and to report on developments in the area of security, with a particular focus on counterterrorism, radicalisation, violent extremism, transnational and organized crime, anti-corruption policies in the host country and in the countries of the region, including on a regional level;
- To provide regular and timely reporting to the Security and Defence Policy Directorate (CT Division) at EEAS HQs, and to the Heads of Delegation in Central Asia on the above mentioned topics including monthly reports, early warnings, specific requests, info flashes, "think pieces", etc;
- To ensure close coordination with Member States' security advisers, police liaison officers and counterterrorism officers, including by participating in and/or convening relevant coordination meetings;
- To develop and maintain a network with relevant Law enforcement institutions, Ministries of Interior and other relevant security actors in the region, such as national administrations and security sector leadership, Member States' embassies and cooperation agencies, other bilateral partners (US, Canada, UK, Japan, Gulf states, etc.), UN agencies, OSCE Programme Offices, private security providers, NGOs and local civil society.

- To closely cooperate with the relevant Commission services (including FPI, INTPA, HOME, FISMA, NEAR) in the identification, formulation and implementation of EU counterterrorism and P/CVE activities in the country and the region, in line with the Security and Defence Policy Directorate (CT Division) strategic advice and priorities, and acting in close cooperation with the regional FPI team and the EMLOs where present;
- To liaise, as necessary, also with the relevant EU Agencies (e.g. EUROPOL, EUROJUST, FRONTEX, CEPOL and others) and relevant EU-funded regional programmes.
- To undertake any other duties that may be required by the Security Policy Directorate (CT Division) in security and/or counterterrorism policy related matters, such as representing the EU in relevant security and/or counterterrorism related working groups in the country, contribution to briefings and the preparation of impending visits as well as providing general analytical input;
- Presentation, information and communication: Where mandated to do so by and under the EU Delegation's supervision, contribute to explain, specify, defend EU policies to domestic audiences, particularly politicians, press, business and academics; contribute to the Press and Information activities in all relevant areas.

Legal basis:

This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy Decision HR DEC (2014)01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.
