From the Publisher

The preparation and publication of lists of geographical names is a result of the implementation of an UN resolution. Its objective is to standardize the geographical names used in official relations as well as cartographic publications, handbooks, the press and other mass media. Geographical names have an important role to fulfil in providing information. In the face of political changes occurring worldwide, it is necessary to publish official, updated lists of names.

The Geodesy and Cartography Law provides that the Commission on Standardization of Geographical Names Outside the Republic of Poland operates under the Surveyor General of Poland. In accordance with § 3, item 1, point 2 of the Regulation of the Minister of the Interior and Administration of 24 March 2000 on the manner and scope of the Commission's activity, it shall prepare the official lists of Polish names of countries and non-self-governing territories. The fifth edition of the "Official List of Names of Countries and Non-Self-Governing Territories" ("Urzędowy wykaz nazw państw i terytoriów niesamodzielnych"), prepared in consultation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, is an implementation of this regulation.

It takes into account changes in geographical names that have occurred since the publication of the forth edition in 2017. In accordance with § 3, item 3 of the above-mentioned regulation, the official list of names of countries and non-self-governing territories is published for use by entities responsible for performing public tasks within the territory of the Republic of Poland.

I am confident that the present publication, prepared by a team of specialists, primarily geographers and linguists, will contribute to the correct use of geographical names and will be helpful for many people and institutions.

Surveyor General of Poland

Waldemar Izdebski, Ph.D. D.Sc. Eng.

Introduction

This inset includes a translation of the introductory part of the Polish language publication entitled Urzędowy wykaz nazw państw i terytoriów niesamodzielnych, i.e. the editorial page, table of contents, “From the Publisher” note, introduction, romanization rules, explanation of abbreviations, Polish-English dictionaries of country, territory and language names, as well as a translation of the footnotes included in the publication.

The Official List of Names of Countries and Non-Self-Governing Territories (Urzędowy wykaz nazw państw i terytoriów niesamodzielnych) contains names of 195 countries recognized by the Republic of Poland (i.e. 193 member states of the United Nations Organization, Kosovo, and Vatican City) and 69 non-self-governing territories. Attached is a list of nine territories with an undetermined or disputed international status. The correct spelling of the names of countries and their capitals has been provided, which the Commission on Standardization of Geographical Names Outside the Republic of Poland (KSNG) recommends for common use in Polish texts, such as encyclopaedias, tourist guide-books, textbooks, publications written in order to obtain an academic degree, in the press and electronic media, and particularly on maps. The publication takes into account the resolutions of the Commission passed until October 16, 2019.

Incorrect use of geographical names occurs not just in the Internet and in the press, but even in books and on maps. For example, instead of the name Holandia [Holland], which has been the Polish name of the entire country since the 19th century, sometimes the name Niderlandy [Netherlands] is used; the form Erewan still can be found in print even though the lists of names published since 1986 recommend the use of the traditional name Erywań [Yerevan] exclusively; the name Phenian can be frequently seen, although the name recommended since 2006 is Pjongjang [Pyongyang].

The present list enables the correct use of names of countries, territories and their capitals by public administration officers, authors and editors of texts, as well as anyone who seeks write and speak correct Polish. It also provides declension forms of the names, words derived from the names of countries and territories, and additional notes. In accordance with the recommendations of the United Nations Organization, for all Polonized names (exonyms) the official equivalents (endonyms) have been provided in their original spelling and in the case of names originally written in non-Roman script also in a romanized form (transcription and transliteration).

In the Polish language, names of countries, territories and their capitals are used either in a Polonized form (such as Szwecja [Sweden], Sztokholm [Stockholm]) or in the original one (Chile, Santiago). The Commission recommends the use of traditional names (exonyms), which have been well-established in Polish. Some of the traditional names of countries, which form part of our cultural heritage and should be preserved in the modern Polish language, include Holandia [Holland], Moldawia [Moldavia], Włochy [Italy], and Wybrzeże Kości Słoniowej [Ivory Coast]. The Commission does not approve of replacing those names with the original names or names close to original ones: Niderlandy [Netherlands], Moldowa [Moldova], Italia, Côte d'Ivoire. However, in accordance with the recommendations of the UN, the Commission tried to eliminate some unnecessary Polonized forms that have not been widely known and used or whose form has been controversial. Consequently, names such as Niamey, Monrovia or Reykjavík should remain in their original forms instead of the previously recommended ones: Niamej, Monrowia, and Rejkiawik. It is recommended to use one short name and one official name for the same country. Consequently, the names: Kirgistan [Kyrgyzstan], Rwanda, Saint Kitts i Nevis [Saint Kitts and Nevis] have been approved, while the use of their variants, Kirgizia, Ruanda, Saint Christopher i Nevis, is discouraged. An exception was made for Vatican City, for which two full names have been established, as suggested by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs: Państwo Watykańskie [Vatican City State] and Stolica Apostolska [Holy See]. Furthermore, variant short names have been recommended for three countries: Eswatini and Suazi [Swaziland]; Mjanma [Myanmar] and Birma [Burma]; Wielka Brytania [Great Britain] and Zjednoczone Królestwo [United Kingdom].

The names of countries, territories and their capitals included in the list have been approved by the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Any footnotes clarifying the status or the names of states and territories come from the Ministry.

Detailed information

Part I. Countries

The names of countries have been put in alphabetical order. All the entries have been prepared according to a single pattern:

pol. [Polish] Andora, D. [genitive] Andory, Mc. [locative] Andorze;

Księstwo Andory [Principality of Andorra]

kataloński [Catalan] Andorra; Principat d'Andorra

przym. [adjective] andorski

obyw. [name of the citizen] Andorczyk, Andorka, Andorczycy [Andorran]

stol. [capital] Andora, D. [genitive] Andory, Mc. [locative] Andorze

– Andorra la Vella

The entry name, i.e. the short country name in Polish, is followed by the location of the respective country (part of the world*). The entry contains five items preceded by explanatory abbreviations:

- 1) Pol. – short name of the country in Polish (in the nominative [bold], genitive [D.], and locative [Mc.]) and the official, full name (in the nominative case, and also in the genitive and locative cases where the declension of a name may cause problems). Where only the short name is given (for example Ukraina [Ukraine]), this means that it is also the official name. For some countries, common Polish abbreviations have been provided, such as RFN [Germany].
- 2) Name of the official language – the short name of the country and its full official name in the official language (or languages).
- 3) Przym. – adjective derived from the name of the country in Polish (in its nominative singular masculine form).
- 4) Obyw. – name of the citizens of the country in Polish in its nominative singular masculine and feminine form, as well as the plural masculine form.
- 5) Stol. – name of the capital of the country used in Polish (in nominative, genitive and locative); if its spelling is Polonized, it is followed by the name in the official language (or languages).

For countries and capitals whose names are originally written in a non-Roman script, either traditional Polonized names are used (such as Jemen [Yemen] or Pekin [Beijing]) or ones in their Polish transcription (such as Dżibuti [Djibouti] or Duszanbe [Dushanbe]). In both cases, the original name in non-Roman script and in its romanized form has also been provided. Usually the romanization is according to the guidelines of the United Nations Organization, the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) or the BGN/PCGN. See pages XIII, XIV, and XV for a detailed list of the romanization systems. A simplified Polish transcription of the name has been provided in the second place, e.g.

* Afryka = Africa; Ameryka Południowa = South America; Ameryka Północna = North America; Antarktyda = Antarctica; Australia i Oceania = Australia and Oceania; Azja = Asia; Europa = Europe.

- pol.* [Polish] Algieria [Algeria], D. [genitive] Algierii, Mc. [locative] Algierii; Algierska Republika Ludowo-Demokratyczna [People's Democratic Republic of Algeria]
- arab.* [Arabic] [non-Roman form] – trl. [transliteration] Al-Jazā'ir, الْجَزَائِيرِ الْدِيمُقْرَاطِيَّةِ الشَّعُوبِيَّةِ [transcription] Al-Dżaza'ir; [non-Roman form] – trl. [transliteration] Al-Jumhūriyyah al-Jazā'iriyyah ad-Dīmuqrātiyyah ash-Sha'bīyah, trb. [transcription] Al-Dżumhuriija al-Dżaza'irija ad-Dimukratijja asz-Szabijja
- stol.* [capital] Algier [Alger], D. [genitive] Algieru, Mc. [locative] Algierze, [non-Roman form] – trl. [transliteration] Al-Jazā'ir, trb. [transcription] Al-Dżaza'ir

The transcription rules were applied as approved by the Commission for the purposes of preparing the twelve-volume Geographical Names of the World (Nazewnictwo geograficzne świata, 2004–2010), the Official List of Polish Geographical Names of the World (Urzędowy wykaz polskich nazw geograficznych świata, 2013), and rules later adopted or amended by the Commission. The absence of a Polish transcription (for example for Chinese, Korean or Thai names) means that only the international romanization system is recommended for use in Polish publications.

The Commission is not involved in the standardization of derivatives from the names of countries (adjectives and names of citizens); these are provided for information purposes only, and they are in line with the opinion provided by the Orthography and Onomastics Unit of the Council for the Polish Language at the Presidium of the Polish Academy of Sciences (Zespół Ortograficzno-Onomastyczny Rady Języka Polskiego PAN). In some cases, variants mentioned in normative dictionaries of the Polish language have been provided, e.g. afgański and afganistański [Afghan]; Bahrańczyk and Bahrajńczyk [Bahraini]. The fact that one of the variant forms has been put first does not mean that this specific form is considered more worthy of recommendation than others. Instead of single-word names of citizens and adjectives, descriptive forms such as “rząd Rumunii” [“government of Romania”], “obywatel Brazylii” [“citizen of Brazil”] may be used. If no adjective or name of the citizen exists, the respective item has been omitted in the list. This means that descriptive forms are recommended, such as “rząd Wysp Salomona” [“government of the Solomon Islands”] or “obywatel Wysp Marshalla” [“citizen of the Marshall Islands”].

 BGN – U.S. Board on Geographic Names; PCGN – Permanent Committee on Geographical Names for British Official Use.

Part II. Non-self-governing territories

The selection of those territories was a problematic one, as no criteria unambiguously indicate whether a particular area constitutes a non-self-governing territory or is an integral part of a specific country. The UN list of non-self-governing territories from 2019 has only 17 entries (including Western Sahara, treated as a territory with an undetermined international status by the Republic of Poland). Consequently, the lists of overseas territories belonging to France, the United States, and the United Kingdom issued by competent authorities of the respective countries (Ministère des Outre-mer, U.S. Department of the Interior/Office of Insular Affairs, and Foreign & Commonwealth Office) were used. In the remaining cases, the factors considered were the distance from the mother country, any special administrative status, and whether a particular territory has been traditionally regarded as a “dependent” or an “overseas” one in Polish and foreign information publications.

Entries in the list of names of non-self-governing territories are arranged in a similar way to the list of country names, with the entry name followed by information on the territory location (part of the world or, in exceptional cases, ocean). The territory’s political affiliation (form of the dependence and name of the country) is given next; this information comes from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

 Departament i region zamorski = overseas department and region; dependencia = dependency; dependencia Korony brytyjskiej = British Crown dependency; gmina zamorska = overseas municipality; kraj autonomiczny = autonomous country; terytorium autonomiczne = autonomous territory; terytorium inkorporowane = incorporated territory; terytorium nieinkorporowane = unincorporated territory; terytorium zależne = dependent territory; terytorium zależne o charakterze terytorium stowarzyszonego = dependent territory of a character of an associated territory; terytorium zamorskie = overseas territory; terytorium zamorskie o specjalnym statusie wspólnoty sui generis = overseas territory with a special status of sui generis collectivity; terytorium zewnętrzne = external territory; wspólnota zamorska = overseas collectivity.

Gwadelupa [Guadelupe]Ameryka Północna [North America]

departament i region zamorski Francji [overseas department and region of France]
pol. [Polish] Gwadelupa, D.[genitive] Gwadelupy, Mc.[locative]

Gwadelupie

fr. [French] Guadeloupe; région Guadeloupe

przym. [adjective] gwadelupski

mieszk. [resident] Gwadelupczyk, Gwadelupka, Gwadelupczycy

stol. [capital] Basse-Terre ndm. [no declension]

In many cases, no adjectives or names of inhabitants are derived from the territory name, and some non-self-governing territories have no capital. In such cases, the respective entries have been shortened by omitting the blank items.

The alphabetical list is supplemented by the list of non-self-governing territories arranged according to the countries they are dependent on.

Appendix: Territories with undetermined or disputed international status and others

The appendix contains nine territories with a special international status. These mainly include territories with a disputed or undetermined ultimate status such as Palestine and Western Sahara. The second group consists of separatist territories which have unilaterally proclaimed their independence, sometimes only recognized by few countries. None of these seven quasi-states is recognized by the Republic of Poland. They are included in the list because their names frequently appear in the press, electronic media, books and on maps, therefore knowing their correct form is essential.

Entries have a similar arrangement to entries dedicated to a non-self-governing territory. The entry name is followed by the status of the territory*, and in the case of separatist territories, a note has been given regarding the country it is part of under the international law.

Name index

The alphabetical index contains entry names of countries, territories and capitals used in the Polish language.

* Formalnie stanowi część... = formally is a part of...; status polityczny nierostrzygnięty = undetermined international status.

While earlier claims to the territorial sovereignty in Antarctica have not been negated by the Treaty, several countries do not recognize these claims.

Abchazja (p. 63)

A territory which formally is a part of Georgia, while in practice remains beyond its control. The fact that the name “Abchazja” [Abkhazia] has been included in the list shall not be understood as a recognition by the Republic of Poland of the so-called Republic of Abkhazia, functioning de facto on that territory.

Names used by the Abkhazian authorities. Georgia uses the following names: Georgian აფხაზეთი – trl. Apkhazeti, trb. Apchazeti; აფხაზეთის ავტონომიური რესპუბლიკა – trl. Apkhazetis Avt'onomiuri Resp'ublik'a, trb. Apchazetis Awtonomiuri Respublika // Abkhaz Աբխազիա – trl. Ápsny, trb. Apsny; Աբխազիայի Ավտոնոմական Հարաբերությունների պալատ – trl. Ápsnytái Avtonomtái Arespublika, trb. Apsnytlyj Awtonomtly Arespublika.

Cypr Północny (p. 63)

Poland recognizes only one state on Cyprus: the Republic of Cyprus, diplomatic relations with which date back to 1961. In 2004 the Republic of Cyprus became a member state of the European Union. The relations of the European Union with the northern part of the island are governed by the relevant regulations of the Council of the European Union.

Górski Karabach (p. 64)

A territory which formally is a part of the Republic of Azerbaijan, while in practice remains beyond its control. The fact that the name “Górski Karabach” [Nagorno-Karabakh] has been included in the list shall not be understood as a recognition by the Republic of Poland of the so-called Republic of Nagorno-Karabakh, functioning de facto on that territory.

Naddniestrze (p. 64)

A territory which formally is a part of the Republic of Moldova, while in practice remains beyond its control. The fact that the name “Naddniestrze” [Transnistria] has been included in the list shall not be understood as a recognition by the Republic of Poland of the so-called Pridnestrovian Moldavian Republic, functioning de facto on that territory.

Names used by the Transnistrian authorities. Moldova uses the following names: Transnistria; Unităile administrativ-teritoriale din stînga Nistrului (Romanian).

Osetia Południowa (p. 65)

A territory which formally is a part of Georgia, while in practice remains beyond its control. The fact that the name “Osetia Południowa” [South Ossetia] has been included in the list shall not be understood as a recognition by the Republic of Poland of the so-called Republic of South Ossetia, functioning de facto on that territory.

Names used by the South Ossetian authorities. Georgia uses the following name: გვინდვალის მუნიციპალიტეტი – trl. Tskhinvalis Regioni, trb. Cchinwalis Regioni (Georgian).

Palestyna (p. 65)

A territory comprising the West Bank and the Gaza Strip. Pursuant to the Oslo Accords between Israel and Palestine of 1994, the Palestinian National Authority was created in that area until the final peace settlement is reached. The United Nations General Assembly resolution 67/19 of November 29, 2012 granted Palestine a non-member observer state status in the United Nations. The Palestinian side officially uses the name “State of Palestine”. This name is also applied by the UN Secretariat. The process of obtaining an international personality by Palestine is still in progress. Poland has recognized the act of proclamation of the State of Palestine, adopted by the Palestinian National Council (the parliament in exile) in Alger on November 15, 1988. Poland supports the idea of the Palestinian statehood in line with the two-state solution adopted by the international community as the final result of the negotiations with the Israeli side.

Sahara Zachodnia (p. 66)

A former dependent territory of Spain, now largely under Moroccan administration and incorporated as an integral part of Morocco into the administrative structures of its regions. Several countries and organizations, including the African Union, recognize the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic, which has been proclaimed here and has de facto control over part of the area. The UN recognizes Western Sahara as a non-self-governing territory whose final status is to be determined through a referendum.

Somaliland (p. 66)

A territory which formally is a part of the Federal Republic of Somalia, while in practice remains beyond its control. The fact that the name “Somaliland” has been included in the list shall not be understood as a recognition by the Republic of Poland of the so-called Republic of Somaliland, functioning de facto on that territory.

Tajwan (p. 67)

The name unrecognized by Poland; in some international organizations Taiwan acts under the English name “Chinese Taipei” (Chinese: 中華臺北 – trl. pinyin Zhonghua Taibei, trl. W.G. Chung-hua T'ai-pei).
